VACAVILLE LOSES TWO TO ARMIJO

Varsity Loses

The first half of the Armijo game was very slow, with a great lack in pep and scoring ability on the part of the Bulldogs who found themselves at half time on the bottom of a 19 to 8 score.

By some miracle the local Varsity came back fighting and when the final gun went off, they were behind by a score of only 33 to 25, having scored 17 to Armijo's 14 points in the second half. The star of the A game was John Pulido, who sank 10 of the 17 points in the second half.

B's Victorious Again

Though our B team lost its first game of the season a few weeks ago to Vallejo, their courage and spirits were as high as ever as they chalked up another victory from Armijo last week.

As usual, Bera was high point man, with six points to his credit.

During the second half, the second team went into action, playing most of the time and keeping the Armijo team well in hand.

The game ended with a score of 16 to 8.

C Team Loses Again

Our C's lost their second game to Armijo by a score of 23 to 15. The first two minutes were the most eventful for the Vacaville team as they chalked up a score of 5 to 0, but they were able to score only twice afterwards in that half.

The second half saw our decidedly shorter boys coming back with more fire than usual. This was to no avail, for the boys lost to their opponents by a score of 23 to 15.

Rabbit Ears Damiano was once again the star as he rolled in four points in the final minutes.

SEEN AT THE ARMIJO GAME

Robert Young and Tom Williams allowing themselves to become very upset over Mike Gonzales.

Everyone enjoying Armijo's good band. Quite a novelty.

Greta trying to attract the attention of the Armijo boys.

Nancy, Barbara, Louise, and Betty leaving early. What happened, girls? Didn't you enjoy the game?

Ed S. and Mercedes C. enjoying each others company as well as the game.

Yvonne C. rooting for Mike G. (Armijo)

Clare obviously looking the other direction when she saw R. E. (Armijo)

Vic Lorenzo looking very bored.

Anne M. and Joe Campos having a wonderful time.

Erna T. and George L. together again. It's getting to be quite a habit.

Julian C. making passes at all the Armijo girls that went his way.

Margaret P. enjoying Arthuer L.'s company.

Barbara A. not wanting to meet an old Armijo acquaintance.

Nick L. making the game interesting.

Bill S. looking very dejected when there wasn't a seat next to Dorothy H. (Armijo)

Eddie Pena '42 rooting for good old Vaca High.

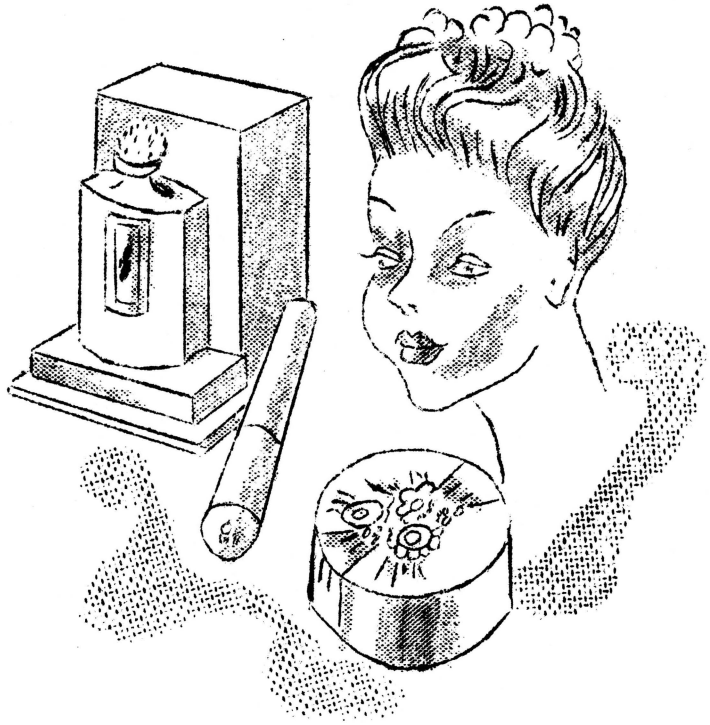

Rose Marie making signals to Don W.

Theresa B and Elsie P. showering the yell-leaders with confetti.

Margaret, Norine, Mary Helen P., and Kay G. shouting up the streets of Fairfield.

Jacoba very unhappy during the C and B games.

A certain group of students frequently gathering outside the door. What were they doing there?

TEEN TIPS

Is Beauty Skin Deep?

A tube of lipstick, a good skirt, a sloppy-joe sweater, and a pair of good old saddles and you're a snap. That's what you think!

What about your complexion? How does your hair look? Do you remember the good old Saturday night custom? Have you noticed your hands lately? Are your clothes always pressed? Do your shoes resemble their original color? And, oh, those bulges!

First off is cleanliness. If you don't keep yourself and your wardrobe immaculate, you're definitely out. Not only is cleanliness the most important "must" for you to watch, but it is the easiest and cheapest.

And how about your wardrobe? You can have two or twenty outfits and still look smart. But, how do you wear your clothes? Do you choose your jackets, coats, sweaters, socks, hair ribbons, jewelry, and purses to match, both in style and color? Is your hem straight? Are your shoes clean? And new shoelaces once in awhile would help appearances. Do you purchase becoming clothes? An unbecoming outfit, no matter how good looking or expensive, can ruin your appearance. And don't forget to keep your clothes pressed. They look so much nicer.

How about your hair? Do you just get a permanent and forget about it for a month? If you want nice shiny hair, wash it every week or ten days, and don't forget the good old-fashioned hairbrush. And, above all, wear your hair in a style that is becoming to you and not Veronica Lake.

The best beauty treatment for your complexion is good old soap and water. Never put on a fresh makeup job over a stale one. Use a clean powder puff. Always! And remember girls, your diet also has a lot to do with that complexion. Lay off the sweets if you want to look sweet.

Do you wash your hands often? Scrubbing your nail tips and knuckles keeps them white. Also, a fingernail file does a lot of good. If you bite your mails, try using a little will power and then see what happens.

High school girls are one-sided. Shoulder and hip on one side are higher than on the other. Why? Because purses, books, and bundles are constantly carried on one side. The weight drags a girl down and ruins her figure. Shift your bundles from one side to another. Sit straight and don't slump. What's more, a few one, two, threes don't do the figure any harm.

Don't laugh too hard, boys. Your turn comes next week.

MODERN EVE

Nancy's mother: Nancy, why did you strike your little brother?
Nancy: Well, he wanted to play Adam and Eve, and instead of tempting me with the apple, he ate it himself.

If you wonder why girls wear hair ribbons, here's what they mean:

White----------Going steady
Blue----------Kiss me
Yellow----------Looking for a man
Pink----------In love
Green----------Want a date
Red----------Dangerous
Plaid----------Date me quick, I'm desperate!
No ribbon at all-----Confirmed old maid.

The Tiger Rag also goes for our jokes. More power to you, Clare and Nance!

We're beginning to understand why Armijo doesn't send us their paper. It seems they call some of our students "Fish Town Boys", which isn't complimentary, and throw in little digs whenever possible. What's the Matter, Armijo? Are you mighty Indians afraid to let us read what you have to say? You would rather say it behind our backs, eh? Well, I guess that old saying still goes, "the only good Indian is a dead one." We mean it literally, of course!

SEEN AT THE WINTERS GAME

Noland Bagley with Pat Holmes.

Anita arguing with Vern (Winters) as to who would win the game.

Joe Campos very sweetly showing up with an ice cream cone for Yvonne C.

Pat Holmes prompting Carl Olander to keep his eye on a certain girl.

The last two minutes making even the quietest persons yell.

Bo Williams with Carmel Damiano '42.

Carmen G. and Bill S. leaving the game early. Blame them?

Jacque Wolff rooting for James Rogers.

Rose Cintas looking as proud as punch over John Pulido's playing.

The basketball players on the floor most of the time.

WE WONDER WHY

Estella doesn't give Trent more attention?

Carl B. was so worried about the mistake in the last Hilltop Rumble? We still haven't found it, Carl.

Doris and Frances never quarrel?

Arthuer seems so lonely lately? Could it be because Mary Hanks has moved?

Linn laughs when there's really nothing to laugh at?

Ilo Lindsay doesn't give the students a break and speak to them?

Don Wilburn's New Year's Resolution never did him any good?

Anne Mowers still likes to attract the attention of a certain alumnus at the games, although she insists that she really doesn't care?

Certain girls always like to take tickets when Armijo plays here?

Joe Campos always thinks about Dorothy Fadley?

Barbara Allen is so happy lately? Could it be because Bob Kinnish ex '45 has been here recently?

Tommy enjoys English so much? Has Vivien Shank anything to do with it?

Nancy's diet never does her any good?

Bruegemann has to tell all the news first?

Carmen Garcia nevers seems able to make the first period?

Everyone looks so joyful? Could it be because of the new and varied supply of candy and gum in town?

Blanchard Rogers is never quite sure what his next move will be?

Kay Blevins has completely taken over the saxophone section of the band? (In more ways than one)

"Mick" Salsman is uncertain how to get home every afternoon?

Virgie Harris was chasing Mrs. Martell's little boy around? Can't you pick on someone your own age, Virgie?

ATTENTION ARMIJO

Lost: A disreputable looking white umbrella at the Armijo game. Liberal reward--Box 236

Found: Dull minute book--at Armijo game--Try to get it!

Found: At Armijo game--Book report--Very poorly written--Couldn't use it in Vacaville.

Complaint: Due to the carelessness of the Armijo people, several Vaca High students accidentally walked into a huge mud puddle on their premises. Let's be more considerate, Armijo!

Another complaint: We of Vacaville Union High School were highly shocked at the disorderly halls of the Armijo High School. This not only leaves the Armijo students open for criticism, but serves as a bad example to the ever-tidy students of Vaca High.

JOKE

Louise: My boy friend ran off and left me.
Bev: What a shame that is!
Louise: I'm satisfied. Furthermore, my house burned down and I haven't any insurance.
Bev: Too bad!
Louise: I'm satisfied; and to top everything off, I'm having such a hard job keeping a job that I'm going bankrupt, but I'm satisfied.
Bev: How is that possible with all of your misfortunes?
Louise: Oh, I smoke Chesterfields!

AUNT SALLY'S COLUMN

Dear Aunt Sally,

We are three girls with the same problem. Our beaux are willing to have no-kiss dates, but now we feel we should allow them one or two kisses. What should we do?

--Three Brunettes

Dear Girls,

Don't disillusion them. Kisses are cheap, but girls like you are hard to find, and apparently the boys feel that way, too.

--Aunt Sally

Dear Aunt Sally,

I am a junior and I like a boy who is going to the Navy soon. He wants us to become engaged. At first I thought it was a swell idea, but now that I have thought it over, I don't want to; I'm too young. What should I do? Tell him about it or take the ring?

--A Junior Girl

Dear Junior Girl,

The answer to your question is a hard one to explain to you. You are quite young, and you would be sorry to be engaged and miss out on fun while he's away. Wait till he comes back. If he still likes you, there'll be plenty of time.

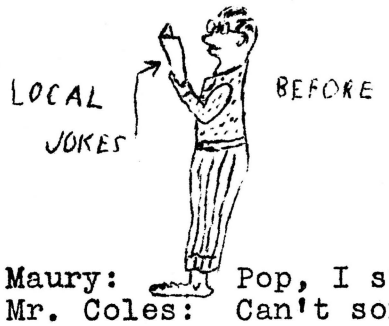

--Aunt Sally

CORNY CORNER
By Nancy and Clare

Maury: Pop, I sure wish you'd help me with this problem.
Mr. Coles: Can't son. It wouldn't be right.
Maury: Maybe not, but you could try.

Mother: (as Mildred arrives home very late) Do you know what that clock says?
Mildred B.: Yes. Tick, tock.'

Vivien: Are you yawning?
Bev: No, I'm giving a silent Indian war whoop.

Dedicated to Betty Price:

I crept upstairs, my shoes in hand,
Just as the night took wing,
And saw my dad four steps above
Doing the same darn thing.

Teacher: If you stand facing the north, what have you on the left hand?
Doris D.: Fingers!

Art L.: Your suit looks as if it has just been slept in.
Larry S.: It has. I just heard your last speech.

John S.: What's that you've got in your lap?
Jack W.: A delayed action bomb I'm taking to the police station.
John: Heavens man! You don't want to carry a thing like that in your lap. Put it under the seat.

Julian: The doctor said I'd be on my feet in a month.
Hoover: Was he right?
Julian: Sure, he knew about my tires

Alice M.: (Going through a boat) How often do big ships like this sink?
Captain: Once, Madame. That seems to be enough.

The minister calling on one of the congregation was met at the door by little Willie.
Minister: Sonny, is your father home?
Willie: Note. Pop hasn't been home since Christmas when mom caught Santa Claus kissing the maid.

Voter: I wouldn't vote for you if you were St. Peter himself.
Candidate: If I were St. Peter, you couldn't vote for me. You wouldn't be in my district.

REMEMBER WHEN???

Emily McCadden went for Paul Evanikoff in a big way.

Anita thought Nick P. was so cute.

Everyone wanted to know Don W., but he didn't want to know anyone.

Dorothy Boll had a soft spot for Erwin Cripps. (She's strictly for the Navy now)

Beverly and Dick B. would stand in the hall for hours.

Louise H. had blonde hair. She's a red head now.

Dorothy Fernandez thought Frank Pritchett was the nicest boy in school.

Frances G. and Anne Cheechov were rivals.

Greta got a box of candy from an unknown admirer. Wasn't she thrilled!

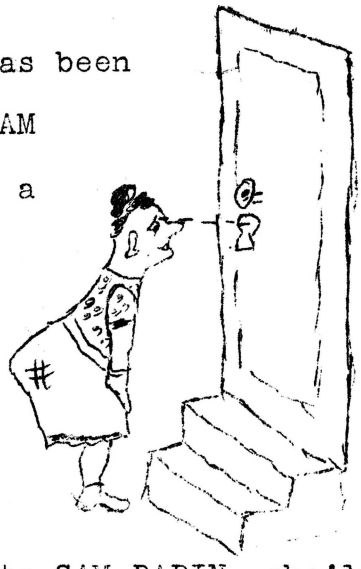

The Weyand-Chandler duo was considered Vaca High's ideal couple.

Kay Goepfert really went for Fred Bowles in a big way.

FRANCES BARON has been wearing a large ring. It couldn't belong to SAM PAPIN, could it? . . . It seems quite a few Vaca students have been enjoying themselves at the Dream Bowl. There were quite a few who went to see Gene Krupa. . . . Why can't VIRGINIA PENA decide if she wants SAM PAPIN or NICK LORENZO? If she wants SAM PAPIN, she'll be having competition from F. B. Say, it looks like ROSE C. is being two-timed for a change. JOHN PULIDO went out with an Armijo gal, and ROSIE felt so sad. Don't be surprised if FRANCES GRIMA looks unhappy very soon, for we hear that G. O. is leaving for the Navy. Girls! Keep an eye on your beaux. Take a look at those new glamour gals, BURNA and BETTY C., and you'll know what I mean. JOYCE HOPKINS has been giving JOE the cold shoulder at every opportunity. And how! It's quite obvious that Armijo doesn't teach etiquette. We hear that M. P. and A. L. really had a good time at and after the Armijo game. Judging from that, we can hardly blame BOB for any disagreements he and MARGARET might have had. Say girls, MASSE and SILAS GROUEX are both cute, but they're a little bit on the bashful side. Can't someone change that? My, FRED ROSS seems to be quite popular with BEVERLY BARTELL. You should see the smiles she turns his way in history. Someone should tell C. M. that "chasing" boys just isn't done. Or maybe "MICK" SALSMAN likes her too, huh? Doesn't JACK WEYAND travel to Dixon any more? We thought that was a sure thing, JACK. . .

. . We understand that there's quite a bit of rivalry between B. J. and CARMEN F. over that certain JOE. Is he worth that, girls? MARCELLE and JOHNNIE A. are still as much in love as ever. They make a nice couple, no? We're curious to know if KAY GROFT still likes VIRGINIA OLANDER as well as he used to. It doesn't look as though you'd stand a chance anyway, does it, KAY? It seems JIMMIE SILVA was chasing girls up the street instead of watching the game at Armijo. Is that nice? BETTY WILLIAMS, FRANCES MARKIEWITZ, and MARION MILLS have been enjoying their noon hours recently with T. P. '39 and A. G. We thought three was supposed to be a crowd, girls. We hear that ISABEL CAMPOS has a date for the prom with DANNY PEDE of Winters. MARGARET J., make up your mind. First, you sit in the show with MARTIN M. Then VERN BAGLEY takes you home. We hear that ISABEL TORTOSA'S new heart-throb is DALE CANNON. Could be! They're perfectly matched. VIRGINIA ESCANO seems to have her heart set on a certain NICK (U. S. N.). She sent him a picture just the other day. They say that LUCY R. is writing to a boy in Winters. Is this a new romance? The freshmen boys are learning their etiquette very fast. At least, you should see them when they see Mrs. Lee coming. New member of the 21 Club---VIRGINIA PENA. BILL P. has found a girl to his liking at last. KAY BLEVINS is the gal. They went to Sweets last Saturday night. MARCELLE and YVONNE have gone for the armed services in a big way. Sunday they entertained a French sailor and Thursday night the French Navy plus the U. S. Army dropped in. Since the Navy spoke only French and the Army English, the conversation was very interesting. ROSE MARIE has really been happy these last few days. After not hearing from Johnnie for twelve days, she received three letters on the same day. We wonder how ILO LINDSEY got along on that date with a very short sailor. Why is BILL PASLEY always asking the girls about the 21 Club? Does he want to be a new member? At last JANE RAMOS has found him. BILL of the U. S. N. We wonder why ANGELO GONZALES has been visiting home science lately? It couldn't be because BETTY STEIN is there, could it? It's too bad boys, but BURNIE CLINE just told me she has her heart set on a handsome guy from Illinois. Too bad boys! An interesting little group seen Saturday night consisted of CLARE MOWERS, NANCY CHANDLER, BETTY PRICE, PEGGY BASSFORD '42, and EMILY McCADDEN, all with U. S. C. G's. That is, all except EMILY. It seems a lively time was had by all. LOUISE HILDEN was out with none other than HAROLD RUSSELL, the conceit of Armijo, Saturday night. He just tries 'em all. YVONNE is living up to her last week's title in a big way. MIKE escorted her home from last week's dance. A charming little couple seen at the show Friday was MARG PRITCHETT and JULIAN CODINA. Well, well, well! CARMEL is now hearing from GORDON quite frequently. Is it at all possible that there's still a spark? Vaca High was certainly surprised when PAT HOLMES appeared at the Winters game with NOLAND BAGLEY. By the way, PAT is going steady with MAURY (Albany). F. BARON and SAM PAPIN and PHYLLIS N. and NICK PAPIN went to the Dream Bowl Sunday night. Consequently, FRANCES just couldn't make it to school Monday morning. JAMES and JACKIE seem to be going steady again. Is it for good this time, JAMES?

CAMPUS CHATTER

By Margaret Pritchett '43

Elizabeth Dulaney '42, who is working in the office of a laundry in Oakland, was home over the weekend.

Robert McLaughlin '42 was home from Sacramento over the weekend Incidentally, if it weren't for a few good old stand-bys like Bob, I'm afraid this column would vanish from the pages of the Rumble. MORE NEWS PLEASE!

Jacoba Lopez entertained relatives from Brentwood last weekend.

Frank Pritchett reports that he was seriously ill the week before last and that the doctors didn't expect him to live; but he pulled through and is now in our midst again.

A new club has been organized at Vaca High. It is known as the Spinster's Club. The only people eligible are the girls who are not engaged or married. This ruling makes it very exclusive.

Wanted: Three or four new reporters and feature writers for the Rumble who are willing to get their work in on time. Apply to Anne Mowers or Dorothy Fernandez.

Emily McCadden, Bob Cudaback, and Betty Price left for Berkely at 5:00 o'clock a.m. Saturday morning. Emily is applying for an undergraduate scholarship to U. C.

The marriage of Eugenia Chaney and Johnny Ellasces was revealed last week. Congratulations to you, Eugenia and Johnny.

Clare and Anne Mowers, Joe Campos, and Virginia Pena went to the Greasy Spoon (alias Victory Cafe) after the Armijo game. According to all reports, they had a delightful time, although their business must not have been very profitable since they didn't eat. Arlene Franklin also dropped in. Joe reports that "the gang" was all there.

Margaret Pritchett went shopping in Sacramento last week.

Frank Pulido of the U. S. C. G. visited school Friday.

Don't fail to notice the artistic drawings with which Helen Sweeney decorates the Vaca High posters. The drawings are very accurate.

Russ Chandler '42 was home from San Francisco State over the weekend. He came up to school to see how things were getting along last Friday.

Mary Ellen Goepfert '41 was home from U. C. this week for the between semester vacation. Mary is very active in campus affairs, spending a part of every day working in the Blue and Gold office. In addition to her regular work, she is enrolled in a special Defense Course and is active in the Delta Zeta sorority.

Bill Solenberger and Frank Pritchett hitch-hiked to Sacramento Saturday. Frank bought a light tan overcoat and then he and Bill saw a show. Bill says that hitch-hiking is much better than before the war.

Tom Williams and Robert Young went to San Francisco Wednesday. Tommy to have his eyes examined, and when he found out that he did not need glasses he was so relieved that he and Robert celebrated by going to a show.

Brewster and Russel Chandler '42 took the bus to Sacramento Saturday. Their only comment was that the bus was on time both ways.

Ted Pollock ex '41 wearing a handsome cadet uniform, called at school on Monday. Ted has finished a course in pre-flight training at Saint Mary's and was on his way to Washington for a three-month course before going to Corpus Christi.

CORN FROM ARMIJO

This little manuscript was accidentally picked up at the Armijo game and does not represent the writings of Vaca High students. Any similarity whatsoever is purely coincidental.

Mr. Carrot Tail, Peter Rabbit's brother, made his home on a hill deep under a big rock. One day while Carrot Tail and Peter were returning from a visit to the tomato patch in the neighbor's victory garden, they came upon a long green snake just ready to spring at Peter. Just at that time, Peter slipped and rolled down the hill into an old abandoned well. Lucky for him, the well was dry and he was unharmed.

In the meantime, Carrot Tail was finishing off Mr. Snake and came home with enough snake-skin to make a pair of suspenders for Papa Rabbit.

Mother Rabbit was so pleased with the boys that she make them cookies of prunes and peaches, taking good care to see that every day they got some of their vitamins, and every day was topped off with a visit to the garden until they had enough food stored in a deep hole under the rock to last all winter.
